

Fact Finding Missions

Who can file an application?

A delegation of specialists from German higher education institutions

Which measures are fundable?

The delegation's travels to initiate co-operation between a higher education institution and a developing country. Through visits to multiple higher education institutions (respective ministries and other institutions) the partner's institution's needs should be met and the founding of close and contract bounded co-operation, on departmental and institutional level, is to be established. These measures should serve as prearrangements for long term co-operation, which after a successful initial phase, will be taken up by the programme 'Subject-Related Partnerships with Universities in Developing Countries'.

For what time period and to what extent is funding provided?

Maximum funding per project amounts to € 15,000/year.

Subsidised expenses:

- International travel expenses for German participants;
- National travel expenses abroad, subsistence expenses according to the Federal Travelling Expense Act (Bundesreisekostengesetz, BRKG) in association with the foreign cost travel expense decree (Auslandsreisekostenverordnung), receipts required.

General details for the application:

The application can be sent via the higher education institution's management. The higher education institution may also address the application directly to the DAAD (department 432, attn Mrs Geratz).

Besides a clear description of the project's aim, a detailed travel agenda as well as the budget form must be handed in. A German professor as person in charge is to be mentioned.
