

Weekend Workshops

Who can file an application?

- German higher education institutions, particularly the person in charge of the Postgraduate Courses funded by the DAAD with relevance to developing countries;
- Academic/University International offices, study related programmes (STUBEn) – local administration offices or similar providers;
- German development co-operation institutions.

Which measures are fundable?

Two types of Weekend Workshops are fundable:

Type I:

Intercultural Weekend Workshops for crisis prevention and conflict resolution:

- Sensitisation of participants from different cultural areas;
- Sharing of experiences gained in Germany.

Type II:

Weekend Workshops to become acquainted with the German development co-operation and respectively for the accomplishment of appropriate training programmes for reintegration:

- Ideas and discussions about a possible collaboration with the German development co-operation;
- Visits on location to prepare the participants;
- Accomplishment of particular training units.

For what time period and to what extent is funding provided?

Measures with co-operation agreements for one and as well as two years will be funded.

- Travel and subsistence expenses for max. 30 participants;
- Expenditure on material and personnel costs for the organiser's preparations, completion and wrap-ups.
